FOREWORD

When a student begins to take a look at his brand new copy of the "EAGLE", instantly he begins to look for pictures of himself, friends, roommates, and other close associates. With our 1968-69 theme, the staff plans to make this process easier by putting the emphasis on the facial expression. We hope you will look closely and observe our theme . . . FOCUS ON FACES.

FOCUS ON FACES... OF FUN

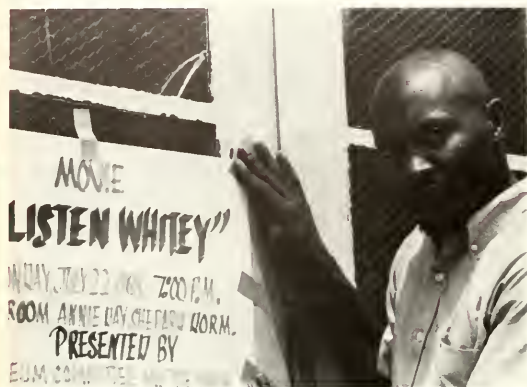

FOCUS ON FACES OF DEVELOPMENT

NCC is developing more and more each year. During the current year, we have witnessed the construction of a Chemistry Building, Student Union, Women's Dormitory, Science Building, and Bowling Alley. NCC's boundaries have extended and also the intellectual capacity of the students. As this process of development continues, it helps make NCC a growing society.

FOCUS ON FACES OF SOUL

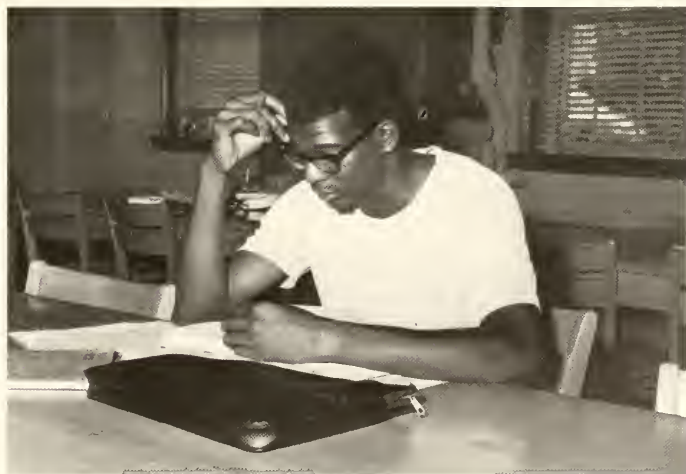

SOUL . . . exactly what is it?

Is it listening to the Supremes, dancing the Four Corners, or looking at a beautiful picture of Florence Ballard?

Soul is self-expression revealing knowledge, love, and identity. People express "it" in various ways. Soul can be a feeling of great emotion or soul can be just a vague expression with a deep inner concern.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

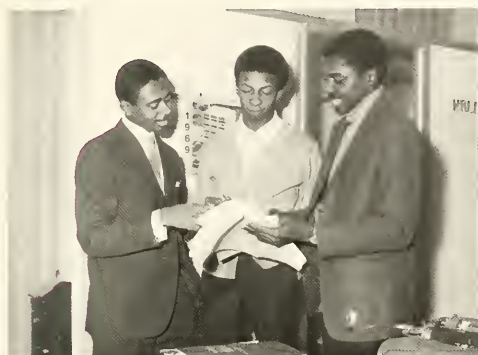

Being President of the Student Government Association this year has been an experience I don't think I'll ever forget. It was a pleasure and a challenge to work with you these past nine months. As I look back I can think of many problems that I had while in office, but I can't complain though because I expected this when I was elected. I also think of the good times I had in office, because there were many more of them than problems, thanks to your support.

Now that the year is coming to an end and my successor has already been elected I can't help but say with sadness, farewell. All the accomplishments that were made this year would have been impossible without your hard work and support. To the Seniors I say well done, to the ones we leave behind make next year and the years to come successful ones for the Student Body and the Student Government Association. You are the Student Body and without your support the Student Government can't succeed.

*Very truly yours,
Alfred J. Whitesides, Jr.*

President

Elwood Callahan, Attorney General, Ray Moose, Director of Public Affairs, and Charles Sanders, Director of Campus Affairs discuss the new Student Code of Conduct.

Being Vice President of the Student Government Association has been a very learning and rewarding experience. I've enjoyed my work with the Student Senate, which can become the instrument to true student power on the campus. I encourage all students with an interest in student life to support the Student Senate.

I could not leave office without thanking you, the students, for the opportunity you have given me to serve you and the college community. Without your steadfast support, I along with other Student Government Association members would have thought our work in vain. Thank you again.

To my successor, much luck. To you I pass the gavel that holds the answer to student power.

Director of Coed Affairs, Judith Enoch, pauses from tedious work for a picture.

Secretaries Gwendloyn Bennet, Elsie Cheatham, Michelle Michael, and Barbara Dorsey surround Business Manager Melvin Bailey.

STUDENT CONGRESS

Student Congress Officers prepare the business matters of the year.

Congress members, Princess Bowden, Tanada Nivens, Jerome Dickens, David Newton, Carolyn Tomlinson, Sandra Coles, Charles Saunders, Wilbert Myatt, and Clarence Cross listen attentively as presiding officer, Priscilla McNeil, introduces a bill.

Congress members, James Avery, Charlene Thompson, Marion Weaver, Artie McKesson, Delmer Reed, Mildred Majette, Richard Shannon, and Gary Palmer

look on as Edgar Grier questions the proposed constitution.

Congress members in a normal mood after hours of debating.

SPORTS . . . SPORTS . . .

Eagle action on the football field like this raises rank in CIAA

Past Eagle, Paris Lennon, is now head coach at a Virginia high school.

James Pridgen, center, in action!!

Steve Humphrey, forward guard, scores two points!

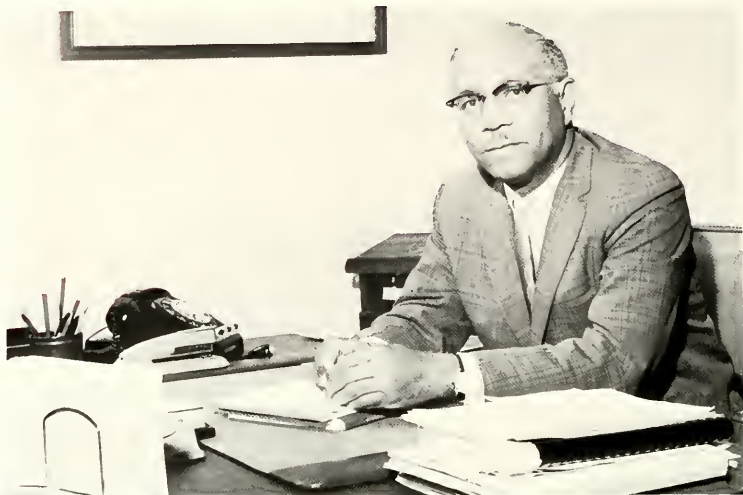

ADMINISTRATION

Editors: Rosa Bradshaw, Yvonne Flowers

PRESIDENT WHITING

President Whiting at his desk as he pursues diligently that cause of action which promises the greatest good for the college, its student body, and its staff.

President Whiting scans through the yearbook, while he has a few minutes of leisure time.

Even the president takes time out of his busy schedule to communicate with the students "on the rail".

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

Dean of Men, Mr. J. L. Lennon, addresses the men of Chidley Hall.

Dean of Women, Mrs. Alma F. Biggers, former guidance counselor, enjoys her first year as dean.

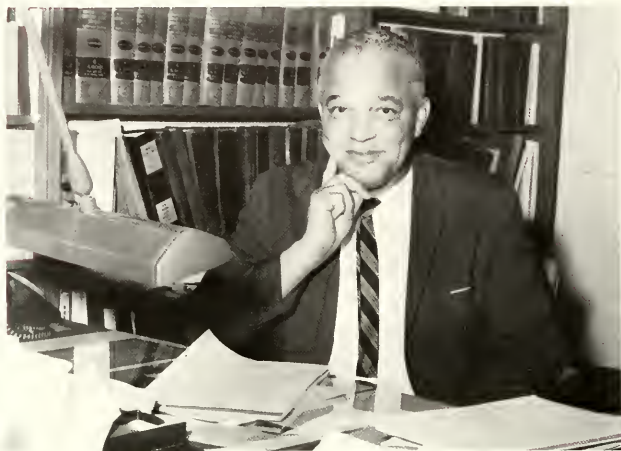

Special Assistant to the President, Dr. Leonard H. Robinson, always wears a smile as he works diligently with his daily responsibilities.

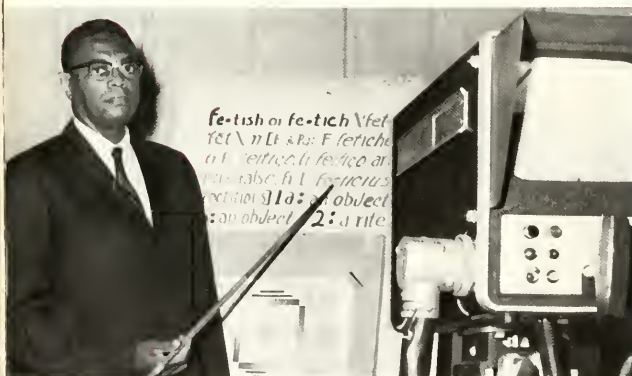

Vice-President of Financial Affairs, Mr. William Jones, conducts his office with efficiency and with meticulous attention to the details of Financial Affairs.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

Mr. Daniel Sampson, Dean of the Law School, wears "a smile of wisdom".

Dr. Cecil Patterson, Dean of Undergraduate School, leaves his office for a bit of classroom instruction.

Dr. Helen G. Edmonds, Dean of Graduate School, takes a break from her many duties.

Mr. J. L. Stewart, Dean of Students, takes a moment to profile for the photographer.

Dean Stewart's Staff working diligently—left to right are Mr. Warren, Jacquelyn Bond, Mrs. Covenington, Peggy Edwards and Asanthia Carr.

Mrs. H. Scarborough, Purchasing Agent, keeps the school well supplied.

Mr. R. P. Smith, Director of Food Services, sits in conference with a student about yesterday's "WONDER MEAT".

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

Mr. Prescott, Director of the Student Union, stands proudly in front of the newly constructed union.

Mrs. Johnson begins her daily duties as Bursar of the College.

Mr. McMillan, Registrar of North Carolina College, takes a five minute break after registering over 3,000 students.

Mr. Whitterspoon, head of the News Bureau Staff, looks on as a member of his staff identifies a picture.

Rev. Hughley, College Minister, talks happily with a student in his office.

Rev. Eaton, College Minister, pauses to pose for an Eagle photographer after convincing two N.C.C. students that it's time for reformation.

Mrs. Pope, Dean of the Library Science School, enjoys the new display of books . . . books . . . and more books.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

Mrs. R. Edmonds, Housing Director, and Mrs. B. Paige smile happily after placing all 3,000 students in dormitories or in homes in the city.

Mrs. R. Johnson, secretary to Mr. Robinson, starts her day with a smile while setting up dates for use of B. N. Duke by campus organizations.

110

Mrs. Thelma Smith (sitting) and Mrs. E. Marable are never too busy to stop and pose for a picture, even though their duties as secretaries to the president are very time consuming.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

Secretaries to the Dean of Women, Mrs. G. C. Lawrence (Front) and Mrs. H. Jones (Back), prepare letters to send to all 2,000 girls.

Secretaries to the Vice-President, Mrs. Davesene Spellman (sitting) and Mrs. Y. Simmons (standing) prepare the requisitions to be signed by Mr. Jones.

Editor, Barbara Forney
 Assistants, Sheron Long, Shelia Allen

STUDENT LIFE

NCC Students take a break from classes to decide whether or not to return to their classes.

During Mother-daughter, father-son weekend, college students are visited by their parents . . . Our editor is visited by his mother and sister.

Enthusiastic crowds such as this one reflect many facial expressions as they cheer the Eagles on to victory.

During Freshman Orientation one of our Faculty instructors informs student about the core curriculum.

Student officials from the Echo and the Student Government welcome the Freshmen to NCC.

Associate Editor of the "EAGLE", Sylvia England takes time from her office chores to wander down by the pool.

No one likes waiting—even if the star is Carla Thomas!

Getting into the picture. No matter what!

We are the Delta's D-U-C-K-S!!!

Dianne Harper, Miss Senior, at the Coronation.

Where are those girls going?? There's a boycott down town!

Another game!!! Another cut. So what?

Kappa Sweetheart, Jocelyn Cordice poses in her tailor made bell bottoms.

Here she is again, but isn't she grand this time?

Frisky Lynada Coleburn caught in act of disturbing the editor's desk by the Eagle photographer

Alpha-Phi Omega Sweetheart, Shirley Watford, in the Union as usual, jumps in the art exhibit just to have her picture taken.

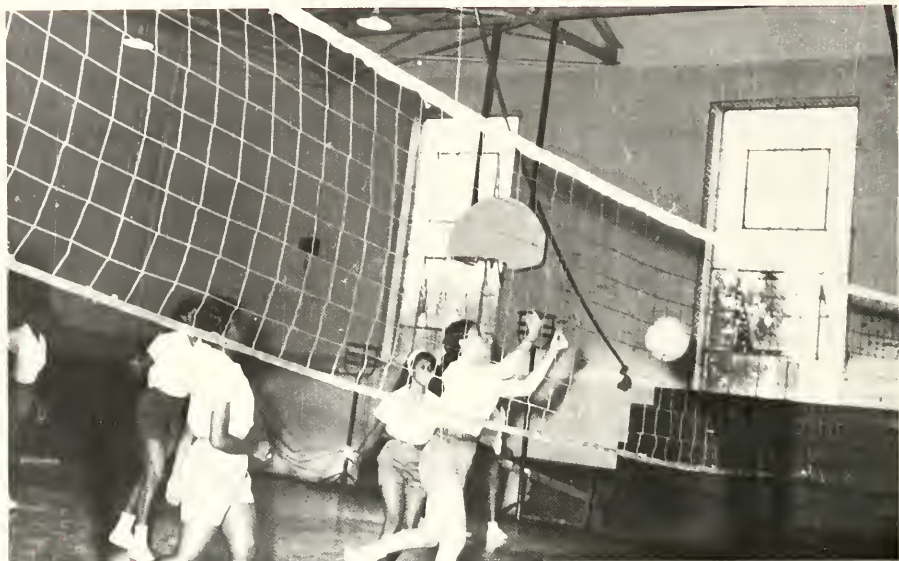

Deidre Palmitier gazes with glee as she thinks about her 3.8 average.

Say it Loud, Alpha Phi Omega is GRAND.

Barry Dorsey, one of the starting five this year was the main attraction. (for the girls)

Freshmen girls really go wild in Physical Education 120.

Janice Porterfield smiles while glancing through the 1968 edition of the EAGLE.

Oh Please Now!!!

Sylvia England, Miss Sophomore, casts a vote for herself in the Spring Election.

Alice Shipman seems to have the same interest as the other girls because they all run to the same statue.

Amy Matthewson clowning as usual. I wonder where her shadow Mary is.

"WHAT'S THE BIG IDEA."

A TRIBUTE

*"Thou wilt not leave us in the dust"
Thou madest man, he knows not why;
He thinks he was not made to die;
And thou hast made him; thou art just."*

—Tennyson

This edition of "The Eagle" is dedicated to a former law student, David Williams, a native Philadelphian, who was killed in a car accident in Fredricksburg, Virginia, while returning to school. David graduated from North Carolina College in 1966 with a B.S. degree in Psychology. He entered law school on the combine degree program in 1966, where he continued until his untimely death. David, better known to his many friends and acquaintances as "Stretch," was a congenial, likable individual. He was active in law school, responsive to the needs of others, and receptive to wholesome fun.

During the short span of his lifetime, he won a special place in the hearts of those with whom he came in contact, and enjoyed the warmth of friendship experienced only by a privileged few.

It can be said with all respect and genuineness of heart that David left behind ideals, goals and warmth that will live forever in the hearts of his friends, classmates and family.

A FAREWELL

*"Flow down, cold rivulet, to the sea;
Thy tribute wave deliver:
No more by thee thou steps shall be,
For ever and for ever."*

*"A thousand suns will stream on thee,
A thousand moons will quiver:
But not by thee thou steps will be,
For ever and for ever."*

—Tennyson

SENIORS

Editor, Mary Braswell
Assistants: Virginia Grigg, Joan Jackson

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Elwood Callahan, president of the senior class, strolls proudly as if it were his last march on that grand day—Graduation.

Vice president of senior class, David Newton, profiles with his "Kappa" charm.

Secretary of senior class, Delores Benton, poses momentarily in the Eagle Camera.

Radiating the charm and friendliness of an overworked senior is, Miss Sandra Coles, treasurer of the senior class.

EAGLE YEARBOOK

This year has been a great experience for me and the people pictured under me have contributed greatly to the production of this "Eagle". I would also like to thank all the other staff members who contributed to this GRAND 1969 publication.

Edgar S. Grier

Miss England always smiles when she works, which she hardly ever does. She served as Associate Editor.

Carolyn Beatty, Associate Editor drops in to have her picture taken. She is a Junior majoring in Chemistry.

I have always enjoyed working with yearbooks, but with Mr. Grier as Editor, I have been overwhelmed with the amount of fun and enjoyment we have shared together. I worked with a lovely staff and the advisors couldn't have been better.

Yvonne Holmes

Freshman Class Editor, Lynada Coleburn, always rambling in something is caught in the act. Lynada is also MISS EAGLE.

Copy Editor, Carolyn Campbell, relaxes before she begins to prepare the remaining pages.

Feature Editor, Amy Matthewson, smiles, although she really is disgusted with all the work that is assigned to her.

Student Life Editor, Barbara Forney, listens to her duties from Associate Editor, Miss England.

Greek Editor, Bessie Farmer, prepares letters to send to all Fraternities and Sororities concerning their pictures.

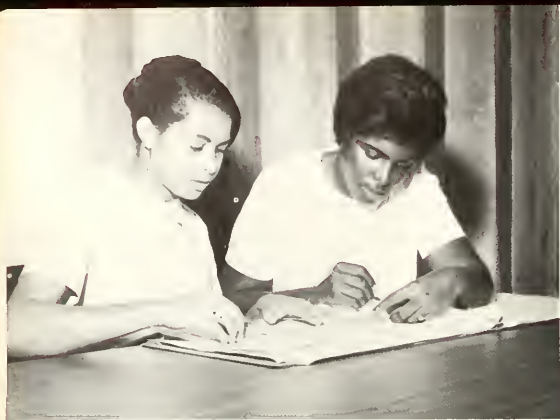

Organization Editor, Annette Peterson, is on her long walk across campus from building to building to organize and supervise picture taking.

Sports Editor, Delmer Reed, prepares layouts for sports. We wonder if the track team will get more space this year.

Ella and Constance... "You have a responsibility."

"Is it worth the trouble."

"To help a lazy staff member is a waste of time."

Mary Braswell learns how to touch type with the help of her staff members. "Do it right this time."

"I wonder if this isn't a better way."

No problem here, Carolyn gives the orders and Bert takes them.

Business Manager prepares records for that monthly check.

Staff members getting their work schedule.

Copy section hard at work on all those "damn" pictures!!!

Staff members browsing over their mistakes.

What's the big joke here?

EAGLE STAFF

Business Manager, Michael Curtis, checks his books for the monthly reports due in the Office of the Dean of Students.

Secretary, Angela Land, was a great help and gave the Editor much confidence that he would meet his deadline.

Yearbook Sports Section members pose for picture after hard work compiling pictures.

Secretary, Anita McLaughlin, always concentrated on doing her work and being sarcastic with the Editor.

Well, after all the HELL we've caught, don't you think we deserve a drink? Johnnie Walker Red and Hot Dogs for a Grand Staff, not to mention the Bacardi Sissy is holding.

We wonder, will we meet our Deadline?

Deidre and Janice look with smiles and relief at the last layout pages.

EDITOR'S PAGE

The Editor in one of his usual spots as a concerned instructor calls him about his many absences from class.

After a hectic day the editor calls his sweet "old lady" for some much needed encouragement

The editor "cheeses" for the camera as he pretends to be working.

EDITOR'S EPILOGUE

Have you ever attempted to do the impossible? Well this year I did. I accepted the task of being Editor of the Yearbook and promised to have it completed on time. This was difficult because of the many conflicts that were involved in the contract and because of the pressure of the teachers. The lack of interest at home was a tremendous let down. I would though like to thank my aunt, Mrs. Ann Miller for her interest in the publication and my teachers who kept congratulating me, even though I received 20's in their classes. This was a great help to me.

When I enrolled at "NCC", I had a dream to hold a top ranking office before I left. I finally made it and those who helped me will never know how much I love them for it. I must mention their names: Mrs. Marian Covington, Sadie Smith, Barbara Cathey, Carolyn Flowers, Sylvia England, Bessie Beckwith, and last but not least, Fern Matthewson.

I enjoyed it all from working with Lynada Coleburn on Freshman pictures, to working with my Business Manager, Robert Bell, with Financial matters. If I assume the position of Editor for next year, I hope co-operation will be the same and that my staff will be as helpful and fun-filled as this year. At times I felt like saying—it all and forget the whole damn publication, but thoughts of how I could make this a grand publication changed my mind.

I hope, that after receiving your copy, each student and faculty member will write down your suggestions for improvement and give them to a staff member. We appreciate criticisms as much as compliments because we know we have been a grand staff and we couldn't have done better.

With this I say I hope each of you enjoy this 1969 Edition and our theme, "FOCUS ON FACES".

I look back over the difficult times with the administration, the 20's in class, and I laugh. I loved the surprise party my staff gave me Homecoming, although I was in no condition to enjoy it. I was totally surprised at some of the things my staff had done for me. Janice and Deidre always seemed to drop in at the right time. Sissy and her tired jokes kept me going and I thank her for that. My Business Manager's seldom visits to the office made my day complete.

I really loved it all. I know the Student Union is tired of me blasting my Supreme's albums, by Florence, Mary, and Diana. I'm glad they didn't complain. We invite all of you to join our staff next year.

I must also congratulate Lynada Coleburn for being "Miss Eagle." You've made a lovely "Miss Eagle."

Most of all my very special thanks to our President, Dr. Albert N. Whiting, for his extra guidance and encouragement when things got out of hand.

My other two special friends, Amy and Mary, who would only come over to drag my nose away from the grind stone to make me keep them company at dinner.

The trip to the AMERICAN YEARBOOK COMPANY was an experience I'll never forget. The convention at the Waldorf-Astoria was very educational.

It's really been a GAS and I enjoyed every minute of it.

CONGRATULATIONS, SENIORS!

Graduation is an achievement of which you can be justly proud. It is also a fearful time as well as a happy one for the future is full of uncertainties. The road to success may take you in many different directions before reaching its end. One way to gain success is through a career in life insurance. Few, if any, businesses in America offer a wider variety of employment than does the life insurance industry. North Carolina Mutual offers over 50 job categories from which to choose. Lawyers, doctors, executives, salesmen, managers, accountants, technicians, stenographers, clerks, typists, and food service workers are all in our employ. Whatever your field or specialization, there could well be a rewarding career for you at NCM.
